UCR’S COUNSELING AND PSYCHOLOGICAL SERVICES
Registered students may use UCR’s Counseling and Psychological Services. Students are encouraged to make their own appointments if possible. Counselors are available Monday – Friday, 8:30 a.m. – 4:30 p.m. for walk-in or phone consultation or crisis assessment. After hours, counselors are available by phone 24 hours per day by calling (951) UCR-TALK or (951) 827-8255.

During the student’s first visit to UCR’s Counseling and Psychological Services, information and consent forms will be filled out prior to the initial session. During the first appointment, the therapist will begin to assess the student’s needs and determine the most effective way to help. Options may include counseling with Counseling and Psychological Services.

Tips for recognizing troubled students:
Information on how to help.
Suicide is the 2nd leading cause of death in college age students.

It is especially important that faculty and staff are aware of what can be done to prevent such a tragedy. This brochure will help you become aware of signs of a distressed student; things that you might do to help the student, signs of suicidal ideation, and when and how to make effective referrals for additional help.

WARNING SIGNS OF SUICIDE
THERE ARE BASICALLY FOUR TYPES OF WARNING SIGNS:

1. Situational: stressful or traumatic experience.

2. Depressive: changes in usual behavior, inability to concentrate, socially withdrawn, easily agitated, crying, sense of worthlessness, appears sad, abusing substances.

3. Verbal signs: direct or indirect; verbally or in written material (e.g., assignments, papers, etc.)

4. Behavioral: giving away possessions, writing suicide note, acquiring means to commit suicide, organizing business and personal matters, suddenly resigning from organizations or clubs.

Look for a cluster of signs. A suicidal person who gives warning signs will most often present more than one clue.

TIPS FOR RECOGNIZING TROUBLED STUDENTS

There are two levels of student distress which, when present over a period of time, suggest that the problems are more than the “normal” ones.

1. Ambiguous Dangers/Problems

   Although not disruptive to others in your class, these behaviors may indicate that something is wrong and that help may be needed:
   - Serious grade problems
   - Unaccountable change from good to poor performance
   - Change from frequent attendance to excessive absences
   - Change in pattern of interaction

2. Imminent Danger/Critical Problems

   These behaviors usually show that the student is in crisis and needs emergency care:
   - Highly disruptive behavior (hostility, aggression, etc.)
   - Inability to communicate clearly (garbled, slurred speech, disjointed thoughts)
   - Loss of contact with reality (seeing/hearing things that are not there, beliefs or actions at odds with reality)
   - Overt suicidal thoughts and gestures (suicide is a current option)
   - Homicidal threats

WHAT YOU CAN DO TO HELP

RESPONSES TO AMBIGUOUS DANGEROUS BEHAVIOR:

- Talk to student in private when you both have time.
- Express your concern in non-judgmental terms.
- Listen to the student and repeat the main point of what the student is saying.
- Clarify the costs and the benefits of each option for handling the problem from the student’s point of view.
- Respect the student’s value system.
- Ask if the student is considering suicide.
- Make appropriate referrals if necessary.
- Inform your manager.
- Make sure the student understands what action is necessary.
- Consult with a mental health professional at UCR’s Counseling and Psychological Services.

RESPONSES TO IMMINENTLY DANGEROUS BEHAVIOR:

- Stay calm.
- Call 911.
- Call emergency referral on the back of this pamphlet.
- Inform your manager.

CONSIDER THESE QUESTIONS BEFORE MAKING THE REFERRAL:

- What are the appropriate and available resources for the student?
- With whom would the student feel most comfortable?
- Who will make the initial contact, you or the student?
