NOTICE: UCR and many other organizations and individuals such as physicians, hospitals and health plans are required by law to keep your health information confidential. If you have authorized the disclosure of your health information to someone who is not legally required to keep it confidential, it may no longer be protected by state or federal confidentiality laws.

YOUR RIGHTS: This Authorization to release health information is voluntary. Treatment, payment, enrollment or eligibility for benefits may not be conditioned on signing this Authorization except in the following cases: (1) to conduct research-related treatment, (2) to obtain information in connection with eligibility or enrollment in a health plan, (3) to determine an entity's obligation to pay a claim, or (4) solely to create health information to provide to a third party.

This Authorization may be revoked at any time. The revocation must be in writing, signed by you or your client/patient representative, and delivered to the UCR Counseling and Psychological Services. The revocation will take effect when UCR receives it, except to the extent UCR or others have already relied on it. You are entitled to receive a copy of this Authorization.
